We have set a new standard for therapy rooms. Therapy rooms that value the practitioner and the client.

The therapeutic process contained within a therapy room, calls for confidentiality, professionalism, warmth and, comfort. We are proud to say that we offer all of this and more in our beautiful health and wellbeing clinic in the heart of Basingstoke.

Whether you offer 'in person' appointments or whether you work remotely via zoom, you may want to consider bringing your practice to the Treatment Hub. We invite you to join our lovely friendly group of practitioners and enjoy the quiet privacy that is often so hard to achieve when working from home.

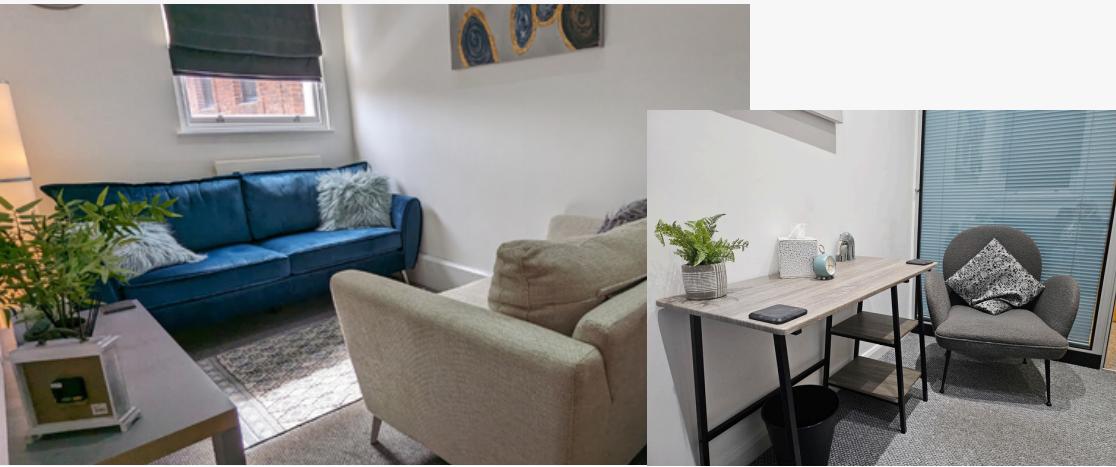

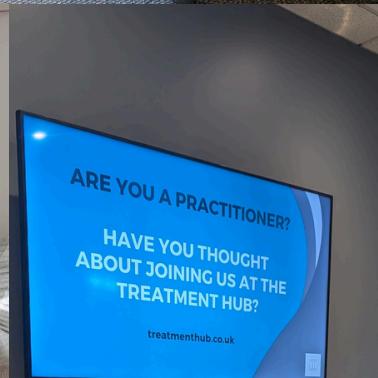

The space at the Treatment Hub has been thoughtfully designed with luxury furnishings, nice homely touches, fragrances and sounds.
